Sweet Temptation

Maine Coast "Chocolate" and Gold Bracelet

Chocolate is every bit as seductive as precious gold and gems. Sweet and dark, it melts on the tongue, lingers with delicious warm creaminess, part taste, part memory. Here we have home-grown, single-origin chocolate from Matinicus, one of Maine's most remote islands. A pure "chocolate rock" in specially carved curvy links, warm melty shapes combined with real gold*. It is an indulgence of the highest order so bold, beautiful, seductive, we call it Sweet Temptation.

A basket of posies, a tea party of flowers and gems, swirls and curls, a wonderland of color.

A ring to delight, to tease and please... makes you smile.

Handmade with a large center gem and four uniquely, no – rather curiously matched side gems... all New England gems. Each ring is a one-of-a-kind, never to be seen again in this exact shape, size, and color combination. Rings are numbered and listed in Cross' Historic Registry.

Compass Rose

*The compass rose is a reminder
...we are not merely travelers
but are the navigators of our destiny.*

The Compass Rose has appeared beautifully illustrated on maps since the 1300's. The term "rose" comes from the layered compass points resembling the petals of the well known flower. It is a reminder of our internal compass, staying focused and remaining on course.

Sailor's Valentine

A love token for your sweetheart

Sailors' valentines are a window into sentiment and love from the high seas of the 18th and 19th centuries. It was during this period that men returned from sea with their treasures from distant ports. One of the most popular gifts of love and devotion from this era were sailors' valentines, eight-sided mahogany boxes filled with elaborate patterns made from tiny sea shells... love tokens for their sweethearts at home.

In the spirit of this centuries-old custom we have created for modern man, miniature sailors' valentines to give to your sweetheart in your choice of silver, gold, or a blend of both.
